

LOVER

Edouard Baer

He talks too much, but never speaks when there is nothing to say

His voice may not echo in the distracted ears, but it will be heard and remembered by more receptive listeners, with the help of social media. And the radio host, earlier called « troublemaker of the PAF », is precisely addressing these keen ears.

What so relevant did this notorious wild haired man have to say? How come early birds falling asleep on their morning coffee started caring and listening to him at some point?

At first sight, nothing appeared to be either scandalous or very punchy indeed. Yet, speaking at dawn for nearly one year now, he's gotten closer to us.

So close sometimes, that he managed to move his hearing with his early hours poetry, his way of saying : « Je t'aime » to Life, and « Fuck off » to the chronicle of a bleak future.

No matter if your toast overflowing with jam just landed on the floor: at the other end of the radio station, a generous speaker has provided you your daily dose of good vibes!

Marseille is changing. So does Love Spots. After six years of sitting on bistro counters, sharing gourmets' tables, opening exhibitions, and as many time curled up in hotel lobbies or slipped into shoppers' bags, your city guide deserved a little update to maintain its freshness. No sooner said than done: here comes the new formula, in a more visual and airy paper to keep up with our times.

In that edition you will get a foretaste of the best summer hot spots, and many more if you wish on our new website intimately compatible with all your screens. Our refurbished webpage indeed aims to guide you better in the beautiful "Phocéenne". Furthermore, as people now come from all over the world to court the town, we decided to launch a new version for our foreign friends.

If you happen to go a little further along the coast, towards the Promenade flirting with the "Azur" sky of the French Riviera, you will find its fellow, sharing the same values: the latter will also pay the bill and offer you its discoveries for free. Welcome in the family, Love Spots Nice! A cousin, hoping the best for you and escorting you with Love.
